WiLL and WAND

The Women Legislators' Lobby is a national non-partisan network of women state legislators who work together to influence federal policy and budget priorities. WiLL was formed in 1991 as a program of WAND (Women's Action for New Directions).

WiLL Trailblazers is a network of former state legislators who expand the influence of WiLL and WAND.

WAND PAC helps like-minded women run for Congress.

WAND Education Fund (501(c)3) provides educational materials for policy makers and community leaders. Our partners include many environmental, peace and security, as well as women's organizations across the nation.

"Together, WAND and WiLL are a potent force. We put women at the table where decisions are made on federal policy."
—Susan Shaer, WAND Executive Director

WiLL

What we do

The Women Legislators' Lobby (WiLL) is a well-respected, powerful presence in state and national politics. We have members in all 50 states. One in three women state legislators is a member.

WiLL's mission is to:

- Educate Congress to redirect excessive military spending toward unmet human and environmental needs
- Encourage women to run for higher office
- Curb the proliferation of weapons, particularly nuclear weapons

WiLL members are leaders at state and federal levels.

WiLL members have gone on to become Governors and Congresswomen. In the 110th Congress, 37 women were elected from our ranks.

Federal Discretionary Budget

Proposed for FY2008 | $934 billion

A Pentagon ($502 billion)	54%
B Education, training, employment & social services ($76 b)	8%
C Environment, Science, Agriculture, Energy ($66 b)	7%
D Health ($65 b)	6%
E Transportation, General Govt, Community Dev, Commerce ($55 b)	6%
F Income security ($54 b)	6%
G Justice ($44 b)	5%
H Veterans' services ($40 b)	4%
I International ($40 b)	4%
* Supplemental for wars (~$142 b)	NA

SOURCE: Office of Management and Budget Historical Tables, Table 8.9 Budget Authority for Discretionary Programs

Pentagon spending consumes more than half the federal discretionary budget — this does not include the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. Yet programs that serve people and protect the environment suffer drastic cuts and shortfalls.

Connecting State Legislators to Critical Federal Issues

As state legislators, we understand that the federal budget shapes our lives every day. With this knowledge, we can effectively represent our constituents — at home and in Washington.

We face special challenges today. While our states struggle to balance budgets, we also shoulder the cost of providing new security measures. WiLL can help. WiLL provides a critical perspective — and the hard facts — on the realities of the federal budget and its impact on state and local budgets. Security is much more than a beefed-up military. Real security includes quality education, affordable health care, essential human services, and good job opportunities.

"The conference gave me a better insight on how to work with our Congressional delegation on issues important to all Americans."

—Rep. Kathy Hawken (ND) (with U.S. Rep. Earl Pomeroy (ND))

"It was great learning about the federal budget; I now have a much better understanding of it."

—Rep. Audrey Gibson (FL) (l) with Rep. Roberta Abdul-Salaam (GA) (r)
