To whom it may concern regarding my membership of the commission to study hospital billing practices.

I am a 20 year student of healthcare reform

- Organized projects in 1988 and following to enable 25 leading hospitals to study and improve clinical pathways.
- Collaborated with Donald Berwick MD from 1988 to 1993 to research and launch the Institute for Healthcare Improvement.
- Taught the first course in Quality to the Joint Commission around 1993.
- Facilitated the Institute of Medicine summit to redesign Medical Education for the New Millenium in 2003.
- Am recognized as a leader of various improvement processes in multiple industries including healthcare with over 10 million books sold to improvement practitioners. (Includes Lean, 6 sigma, innovation, transformation, problems solving, planning, facilitation, coaching and related tools and processes)
- Am a member of the International Academy of Quality and chair of the committee to improve healthcare worldwide
- Have studied the cost of NH healthcare for the NH chambers of commerce 2000-2003.
- Am a student of the medical home
- Am a student of the Asheville project and related projects which enable chronic illness patients to practice self care thereby improving health and reducing costs.
- Am a co-Founder of the Chronic Illness Apollo project to reduce chronic illness by 50% in the next decade.

At this time I anticipate no results from this commission that will provide any financial benefit for me or GOAL/QPC the 501c3 non-profit, which I founded 30 years ago, and serve as CEO.

I will update this statement if new knowledge changes it in any material way.
