State Accomplishments

9:00 - 9:30am

Worman Room

Senator David Langhorst, Idaho, NASC Executive Council

Stand-up and share with your colleagues the greatest accomplishment of your sportsmen's caucus and what you will strive for in 2008.

Building the Bench

9:30 - 10:00am

Worman Room

Senator John Astle, President, NASC Executive Council

Senator David Langhorst, NASC Executive Council

Like any good team, a deep bench and active partners are essential to success. This session will focus on best practices to accomplish both goals.

Deer Contraception

10:15 - 11:00am

Worman Room

William H. (Bill) Clay Deputy Administrator for Wildlife Services, USDA-APHIS

Over the past 30 years, especially the past decade, populations of white-tailed deer have increased dramatically. The use of contraceptive agents to manage deer numbers are receiving increased attention despite the fact that products currently on the market are experimental and difficult to administer.

Archery Session

11:00am - 12:00pm

Worman Room

Jay McAninch, President, Archery Trade Association

Roy Grimes, President, National Archery in Schools Program

Learn about school archery programs and building a community archery strategy. School archery programs are safe, build student self-esteem and introduce kids and families to all shooting sports through target archery.

Media Training

1:30 - 2:30pm

What do Bill Clavin, Dave Wray, Bill Simon, and Ann Coulter all have in common? They all got paid to speak on TV. It's not always what you say, but how you say it. How you look and how you behave on camera influences your audience as much as the content of your words.

Archery Trade Association

Worman Room

Bill Clavin, Kayland Legislative Sportsmen's Foundation

The anti-hunting, fishing, and trapping communities continue to work tirelessly to bring an end to our outdoor heritage. The sportsmen's community working together has been successful in defeating a majority of these attacks, but needs to remain vigilant. In this session topics including the definition of domestic animal abuse, trapping regulations, and changes to animal cruelty laws will be discussed.

Hunting Executive Order

10:15 - 11:00am

Worman Room

Lyle Laverty, ~~Assistant Secretary~~ for Fish, Wildlife and Parks, U.S. Department of the Interior

This session will focus on the Presidential Hunting Executive Order. The purpose of this order is to direct Federal agencies that have programs and activities that have a measurable effect on public land management, outdoor recreation, and wildlife management, including the Department of the Interior and the Department of Agriculture, to facilitate the expansion and enhancement of hunting opportunities and the management of game species and their habitat. We will discuss the call for a White House conference on North American Wildlife Policy.

State Funding

11:00am - 12:00pm

Worman Room

Matt Hogan, Executive Director, Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies

John D. Hoskins, Director, Missouri Department of Conservation

Scott Henderson, Director, Arkansas Game and Fish Commission

Congress has charged each state with developing a comprehensive Wildlife Action Plan. During this session, panel speakers will provide background on State Wildlife Grants and Wildlife Action Plans, followed by a discussion on how state sportsmen's caucus can play a role in ensuring the future of wildlife.

Comcast/Versus

12:00 - 12:15pm

Worman Room

Gavin Harvey, President, Versus

Informing hunters and anglers in your state of the issues that affect them is a key aspect to promoting a pro-sportsmen's agenda. Versus Outdoor Network is committed to raising the awareness of topical issues with their viewers through their field sports programming and relationship with NASC and State Sportsmen's Caucuses.

Lunch

12:15 - 1:30pm

Worman Dining Room

Sponsored by:

MPAs

2:00 - 3:00pm

Worman Room

Gordon Robertson, Vice-President of Government Affairs, American Sportfishing Association

Marine Protected Area (MPA) is a term that encompasses a variety of conservation and management methods in the United States. In practice, MPAs are defined as areas where natural and/or cultural resources are given greater protection than the surrounding waters. This session will discuss why Marine Protected areas should be designated only when scientifically-based, via a transparent, open process, and should be monitored and revised as necessary to ensure effectiveness.

Break-Out Sessions

3:15 - 4:15pm

Leadership Institute Media Training

Cedar Creek B

What do Bill O'Reilly, Oprah Winfrey, Bill Clinton, and Ann Coulter all have in common? They all understand that when it comes to TV, it's not always what you say, but how you say it. How you look and how you behave on camera influences your audience as much as the content of your words.

Firearms Issues

Worman Room

Darren La Sorte, Hunting Policy Manager, National Rifle Association

Jake McGuigan, Director of Government Relations, National Shooting Sports Foundation

Discuss with policy experts from the National Shooting Sports Foundation and National Rifle Association some of today's most pressing firearms issues from microstamping to lead ammunition bans.
