PRESS RELEASE

Greece Athens, 3 August 2009

WORLD HELLENIC INTER-PARLIAMENTARY ASSOCIATION 7th GENERAL ASSEMBLY CALLS FOR ACTION ON RETURN OF PARTHENON MARBLES, JUSTICE FOR CYPRUS, RECOGNITION OF PONTIAN GENOCIDE AND SUPPORTING THE RECOGNITION AND RIGHTS OF ALBANIA'S GREEK MINORITY

The WHIA has strengthened its resolve on the Return of the Parthenon Marbles to Greece from the British museum at its 7th General Assembly held in Athens from 29 July -2 August.

"The W.H.I.A recognizes that the opening of the new Acropolis museum now removes a major barrier used against Greece in the past (namely not having an appropriate museum to house the artifacts in)" said John Pandazopoulos the newly elected President of the W.H.I.A.

"We have resolved to activate our Members for this long standing cause by pursuing the issue with their Governments and in their legislatures, by signing up other legislators to the cause and by writing to the UK Government and UK Ambassadors and Consul-Generals in their respective countries".

The W.H.I.A is an international organization of Hellenic heritage legislators from some 25 countries, excluding Greece and Cyprus. Its members consist of 70 different legislatures around the world.

The 7th General Assembly also called for a just settlement to the Cyprus issue respecting human rights in accordance with UN and EU resolutions and noted that the presence of Turkish troops on the island was inconsistent with this view.

It also recognized and supported the latest confidence building measure to reopen Famagusta as an international city and to allow for property owners and legal inhabitants to return to the city who had left after the 1974 conflict.

The General Assembly also called on Turkey to recognize that the Greek Pontian Genocide did occur and was perpetrated by the Ottoman Empire.

It also called for a solution to the name of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, within a two year period and that any solution on the issue should respect peaceful relations to all neighboring countries.

The General Assembly recognized that the Government of FYROM should work within the framework of the United Nations to achieve a longstanding solution based on a composite name with geographical qualifier and for all international uses.

An important step in this is that the Government of FYROM should abstain from hostile activities and propaganda.

The 7th General Assembly also called on the Hellenic Republic to fully support efforts to guarantee that the rights and freedoms of the Greek minority in Albania are respected by the Albanian Government.

The 7th General Assembly also elected its new Board and elected a new W.H.I.A President.

The Board consists of:

President

John Pandazopoulos MP. Parliament of Victoria , Australia.

First elected in 1992, he served in senior roles in the opposition and was a Minister of the Victorian Government between 1999-2006 with responsibilities in multicultural affairs, tourism, employment and civic construction.

He also represents Australia's 1200 legislators from 10 legislatures on the Executive Council of the Commonwealth parliamentary Association.

Senior Vice-President

Rhode Island State Senator Lou Raptakis, USA.

Junior Vice-President

George Chatzimakakis MEP. A member of the European Parliament elected in Germany.
