Secretary of State Announces Eight Towns and City Wards Randomly Selected for Post-Election Audits

The 2024 General Election post-election audits will be publicly conducted at the New Hampshire State Archives.

CONCORD, NH (November 5, 2024): The Secretary of State has randomly selected a ballot counting device in each of the following towns and city wards for a post-election audit in accordance with SB 489 (2024) and Ballot Law Commission Order 2023-3:

VotingWorks Ballot Counting Device

Moultonborough
Rochester Ward 2

Date and Time of Audit: Wednesday, November 6, at 1pm

Location: New Hampshire State Archives, 9 Ratification Way, Concord, NH 03301

AccuVote Ballot Counting Device

Bedford
Hudson
Laconia Ward 3
Manchester Ward 3
Somersworth Ward 4
Walpole

Date and Time: Thursday, November 7, at 8am

Location: New Hampshire State Archives, 9 Ratification Way, Concord, NH 03301

The moderators in each location were notified after polls opened on November 5. Just one device from each location will be audited. The audits are open to the public and media.

The following individuals will assist with the audits:

Attorney Jenn Cote, Secretary of State's Office
Senior Deputy Secretary of State Patty Lovejoy
Senator Jim Gray (also moderator in Rochester)
Representative Joan Hamblet (also moderator in Portsmouth)
Moderator Robert Dezmelyk, Newton
Moderator Chris Regan, Durham

Moderator Louise Gosselin, Manchester Ward 6

A full report of the audits will be published by the Secretary of State's Office on Friday, November 8.

For additional information regarding the intent, process, and procedures of the audit, please see SB 489 \(2024\) and Post Audit Procedures State General Election.
