02-18-18-185010-13740000-102-500731 Contracts for Program Services

FY2023
$59,606

EXPLANATION

The New Hampshire Department of Agriculture, Markets & Food, Division Agricultural Development (DAMF) has an active Cooperative Project Agreement (MOU) with the University of New Hampshire to address some primary root causes of farmer stress, mental health, and suicide through the NH Farmer & Rancher Stress Assistance Network (NH FRSAN). NH FRSAN project's collaborative efforts continue to provide services to NH farmers in the following program areas: 1) Building awareness and destigmatizing farmer mental health, 2) Education for farmers and agricultural service providers, 3) Farmer wellness and support, and 4) Developing resource libraries.

Direct services to farmers in the areas of legal, financial, and mental health education have seen the highest utilization to date. This supplemental funding will increase capacity to provide those services to additional farmers.

In the event that Federal Funds become no longer available, General Funds will not be requested to support this program.

Respectfully submitted,

Shawn N. Jasper

REQUESTED ACTION

Authorize New Hampshire Department of Agriculture, Markets & Food, Division Agricultural Development (DAMF) to amend a Cooperative Project Agreement (MOU) with the University of New Hampshire ("Grantee") VC #315187 for the State of New Hampshire Farm and Ranch Stress Assistance Network (FRSAN)-Collaborating to Address and Reduce Farmer Mental Health and Stress, by extending the completion date from August 31, 2022 to August 31, 2023 effective upon Governor and Council Approval. No additional funding is involved in this time extension. The original grant was approved by the Governor and Council on October 27, 2021, item #47.
100% Federal Funds

EXPLANATION

The New Hampshire Department of Agriculture, Markets & Food, Division Agricultural Development (DAMF) has an active Cooperative Project Agreement (MOU) with the University of New Hampshire to address some primary root causes of farmer stress, mental health, and suicide. NH FRSAN project consists of five organizations who collaboratively developed the program and these groups will work with additional organizations and vendors who will provide services to NH farmers. The main program topics are 1) Building awareness and destigmatizing farmer mental health, 2) Education for farmers and agricultural service providers, 3) Farmer wellness and support, and 4) Developing resource libraries.

On-line and in-person events, podcasts, videos, print materials and counseling opportunities will address major drivers of farmer stress including farm family dynamics, farm labor, crisis management, farm financial, legal, conflict management, and stress management.

This extension request, which has been approved by the USDA, the grantor, will allow the parties more time to set up the program resources and to conduct appropriate outreach to the farm community as well as service providers.
